There are three veterans' cemeteries in Massachusetts:

The national cemetery is in Bourne.

State cemeteries are in Agawam and Winchendon. Eligible veterans can be buried at no cost. There will be a nominal fee for the burial of spouses and eligible dependents.

Funded under the Veterans' Administration State Cemetery Granite Program, the Massachusetts Veterans' Memorial Cemetery in Winchendon, MA accommodates an anticipated 40-year burial program.

The 17-acre cemetery was constructed in the rolling hills of northern Massachusetts on a site dominated by an upland pine/oak forest and edged by wetlands extending to the Millers River.
